

HR Policy

Exploring, discovering, and delivering the resources that drive our success.

At NEO STRUCTO, our continued success depends on attracting and retaining the best, most innovative, most result oriented employees. Our people are our competitive advantage and the key factor in achieving our goals. We are very serious about the people we choose to recruit and develop, and we aim to provide an environment where the right type of person can grow and succeed.

At NEO STRUCTO, we recognize the importance of realizing employees' potential, improving their skills, and providing greater job satisfaction. We appreciate our people and value the contribution they can make.

NEO STRUCTO believes in involving people and keeping them informed. To make the most of our resources, we link our people to our business strategies. We believe that continuous improvement is the only option. Our continued human resources development aims to increase the freedom and responsibility of all employees. The emphasis is on greater employee involvement and continuously improving everything that NEO STRUCTO does.
